This Week's Learning

This week the children have enjoyed learning to play and playing to learn with Brambles staff and lots of new friends. The children have made a super start to their pre-school year!

Something Special

This weekend why not read The Kissing Hand Story or watch it together on children's You Tube? Afterwards you could make a batch of Kissing Hand cookies and as you bake, talk about your child's first few days at Brambles.
