This Week's Learning

What a wonderful start to Brambles and our pre-school year!

The two open afternoons really helped everyone get to know where everything in Brambles is, meet pre-school staff and each other. Friday was a super start for those who's first day it was. We are looking forward to everyone settling in over the coming weeks.

Something Special

This section of the weekly newsletter is to share ideas and top tips that will help with your pre-schooler. If you have any ideas, please email Brambles so it can be shared with Brambles families.
