This Week's Learning

Something Special

School Readiness and the Home Learning Environment

Speaking and interactions with your children are vital in supporting them to be prepared for school. Some ideas are:

- Being read to (Books, magazines, packets etc)
- Painting and drawing together
- Going to the library
- Playing with letters and numbers
- Learning the sounds of letter names
- Learning numbers and shapes
- Learning activities with songs, poems and rhymes

Email in a photo of you or other family member with your child doing some of the following; however none of these are to be carried on an electronic device!

Don't forget to continue to fill in your child's reading tracker and continue to get sponsors for the 'Mad as a Hatter in March' reading marathon.
