This Week's Learning

We walked to the Co-op and asked the people who work there some questions. We bought some things to bring back to Brambles for a snack. We have also learnt about shapes this week and been on a shape hunt around school.

Something Special

Star Gaze at home

This weekend, why not download this fantastic app and together take a look out of your window and see what you can see?

Once downloaded, just hold it to the sky to automatically find constellations, planets, satellites and more. It's stargazing fun for all ages and experience levels!
